CHAIRMAN'S CORNER

There was little to suggest we were going to record our best ever season after the opening day defeat to Southampton, but what a fantastic journey Tom, his support staff and players have been on since.

We remain unbeaten in the league since that opener and are particularly tight at the back. I could not be more pleased with the progress that we have made, and the team spirit that now exists right through the Club. Which makes it all the more difficult to endure the couple of injuries that we did last week, but the squad is deep and unified, and we'll fight on.

Our visitors today are one of possibly 4 teams still in the hunt for the single promotion place, and have enjoyed a superb run in the Cups,

“ We remain unbeaten in the league since that opener and are particularly tight at the back. I could not be more pleased with the progress that we have made, and the team spirit that now exists right through the Club. ”

including the 4th round of the FA Cup, only losing away on penalties to tier 3 side West Brom.

Today's League Cup Plate Quarter Final has all the makings of an absolute cracker! We welcome the players, staff, and fans of Exeter to the Corinium stadium this afternoon.

Whatever you're doing on these dates*, cancel it, and make sure you're here to cheer on the Ladies for what promises to be an amazing end to the season:

Sunday 27th February v Chesham United

Sunday 13th March v AFC Bournemouth

Sunday 3rd April v Exeter City

All of these games are 2pm kick offs.

Thank you, as always, for your fantastic support

MANAGER'S MUSINGS

Good afternoon and welcome to The Corinium Stadium as we host league rivals Exeter City Women in the Quarter Final of the Women's National League Plate Competition.

Today is another milestone that this group has achieved by reaching this stage of the WNL Plate for the first time. One this group has earned with impressive away wins against Actonians and West Brom. The milestones, awards and praise are a highlighter of the work everyone here at the club is doing both behind the scenes and on the grass (or 3G!).

I'd like to thank everyone for their contributions however big or small towards where we find ourselves currently as a club and the continued hard work, effort, and commitment everyone here is giving. That being said, but no means are we done yet!

Although we have five league games remaining and excitement is building across the league as the season edges towards the final stages, we continue to take one game at a time, playing the opposition in front of us, which has been our focus throughout the season. Pleasing wins against Swindon, Larkhall and most recently Maidenhead have allowed us to kick on in the league and give ourselves a platform to enter those final games with something very much still on the line.

I'd like to welcome our newest signings Emily Owen and Holly Reed to the squad, having joined in January. Unfortunately, they will both be missing this afternoon due to being cup tied.

With their recent performances and with hopefully more to come, you'll see the impact they're making to the team and the squad.

Attention turns to today's tie and cup action against a very strong and well organised Exeter City side. I'd like to welcome The Grecians, Abbie Britton, Aaron Wakeley and their staff, players, and supporters to Cirencester this afternoon. Exeter have been on incredible runs within cup competitions, competing and beating tier 3 sides along the way, which again highlights the strength of both Exeter and the WNL Division One South-West. I'm looking for another tough and exciting game this afternoon and proud that a Division One SW team will enter into the Semi-Finals once the dust settles.

Enjoy the game, Tom.

MATCH REPORT

Swindon Town Women 0 - 1 Cheltenham Town Ladies

Thursday January 20, 2022 – FAWNL Division 1 South West

McGrogan, Bowden (Dudding 80), Viveash, Kelloway (Fraser 82), Leask (Telling 70), Gray, Bourne-Hallett, Attenborough, Colston, Taylor (Mitchell 82), Diaz-Butcher

Watson, Jones, Butler, Owens, Hallsworth, Liggett (Barbour-Gresham 94), Bevan, Wathan (Reed 65), Haynes, Grove (Hayward 94), Rogers

A fantastic finish from Jade Grove earned Cheltenham Town Ladies all three points in a testing local derby away to Swindon Town.

In the Robins' first game for a month, Grove found the top corner from 25 yards early on, and that proved to be the only goal.

The win takes Cheltenham's advantage at the top of the Women's National League Division One South West back to five points ahead of the trip to Larkhall Athletic on Sunday.

It was also a third successive clean sheet, as goalkeeper Aimee Watson was forced to make a couple of strong saves on a night where Cheltenham created the majority of the chances.

Tom Davies handed a maiden start to Emily Owen, with her fellow new signing Holly Reed starting on the bench.

The visitors got off to an excellent start as Holly Rogers and Lacy-Jai Liggett both tested Emily McGrogan in the early stages, before Grove opened the scoring on six minutes.

She picked up the ball 30 yards from goal, turned and placed a beautiful effort into the top-right corner for her eighth of the season.

Cheltenham continued to create opportunities as debutant Owen thought she'd scored from a set piece, only for McGrogan to tip her header onto the post.

A mixture of good goalkeeping and last-ditch defending prevented Davies' side from extending their lead, before Swindon almost scored with one of their first attacks.

Just before the break, a defensive mix-up gave the hosts a chance, but Watson and then Courtney Jones blocked their attempts.

Swindon almost equalised once again on 52 minutes, as Watson did well to keep out a one-on-one.

The second half didn't see quite as many chances for Cheltenham as the pitch started to become even harder in freezing conditions.

However, there were still moments where the lead could've been doubled, with Grove coming close to doubling her tally on a couple of occasions and Billie Haynes shooting over when a cross was parried into her path.

In injury time, the hosts threw McGrogan forward in an attempt to steal a point, but Davies' team held on for a third straight league win.

After the final whistle, Davies said: "We played well in the first half and moved the ball really well. The second half was more difficult, and we had to adapt but I'm really proud of the way we overcame that.

Cheltenham Town made the 100-mile trip to FA WNL Division One South-East side Luton Town with a contrast in results for both teams. Luton had opened with two losses while Cheltenham had won their opening games.

Manager Alex Cheal took the chance to shuffle the group with Amy Leask, Kayleigh Hateley and Bec Panniers all coming in.

It was the home side that came flying out of the blocks with their midfield winning the early exchanges. Cheltenham however settled and it was Wilkins that had a strike on goal that flew wide.

The home side continued to push, and any chances came from their left hand side where Walters and Ellis struggled to cope with overlapping runs. Despite the home team getting into good positions however the final ball was lacking.

It took half an hour for the deadlock to be broken and it was a great team goal. The superb Briscoe worked her magic down the left and delivered a ball into Hitchcox who in turn spun a ball round the corner for Martin to strike home.

Cheltenham's vulnerability would eventually make them pay however and it took Luton only five minutes to claw themselves back into the game. A succession of corners would lead to a far post headed goal to draw level before half time.

The game followed suit of the previous two matches for Cheltenham with a poor start, however it took just two minutes in the second half for them to get back in front.

It was the returning Amy Leask that took her chance when a ball delivered into the box was not cleared and the centre half fired home, in off the bar.

The game continued to ebb and flow with both teams rushing possession. Cheltenham continued to force chances via Martin, Hitchcox and Hateley but they could not extend their lead.

The half continued to fly by, but it was Cheltenham that would score the third when Hitchcox set Butterfield free down the right. Butterfield's perfect cross found the feet of Annie Martin who spun and struck home with her left foot.

Cheltenham were in charge; however they were being caught on the counter as Luton tried to wrestle the game back, and it took a superb save from Panniers to deny the opposition in the dying minutes.

Luton:

Babalola, Byron, Carroll, Guest, Henman, Hassell, McKay, Manning, Motto, Ryan, Summerfield.

Subs: Ferris, Stirling.

Cheltenham:

Panniers, Dance (Dolloway), Morris, Leask (French), Walters, Wilkins, Hateley, Ellis (Butterfield), Briscoe, Hitchcox, Martin.

Poole Town 0

Off the back of two weeks without a fixture, Town Ladies took to the field in the FA Women's National League Plate, looking for a strong performance to shake any potential cobwebs.

Early pressure on the Poole defence put them in the driving seat early on, with Lauren Ellis and Sally Butterfield causing problems, as they fashioned chances for Cheltenham's strikers, Kerry Bartlett, and Annie Martin.

After thwarting a Poole counterattack, Cheltenham chalked their first of the afternoon. Abby Bevan sending a low drive into the danger zone, hammered home by Kerry Bartlett at the far post.

Bartlett would make it a brace from a Cheltenham corner, rising highest in a packed six yard box to head home Martin's delivery.

Minutes later, Martin would put herself on the scoresheet, finishing well under pressure after latching onto a Hallsworth pull-back.

From here, Cheltenham would start to overwhelm the visitors.
Martin would go close with a free-kick which looped just over the crossbar before Sally Butterfield would rattle the crossbar. Abby Bevan reacted fastest, firing her shot low beyond Sam Chrippes in the Poole goal.

Cheltenham kept the pressure on, forcing mistakes and wayward passes from the Poole midfield, presenting Bartlett with a chance to bag a hatrick, but Chrippes was on hand again to block the shot.

The resulting corner saw Martin set it up perfectly for Georgia Brown to nod home from point blank range.

The second half would be a carbon copy of the first, with Cheltenham having just too much for their opponents. From a Poole free-kick, Lauren Ellis collected the ball in midfield, finding Butterfield who lobbed an on-rushing Chrippes.

Manager Alex Cheal rang the changes in the second half, somewhat slowing the Robins' momentum.

Seeing an opening, Poole tried to fashion counter attacks, but the organised Cheltenham defence continuously shut the door.

With Poole flooding forward at every opportunity, Martin was able to round off a good day for Cheltenham by getting her second. A driven ball forward saw Martin slip past her marker before providing a quality nutmeg finish past Chrippes to put the cherry on the cake.

MATCH REPORT

Cheltenham Town Ladies 4 - 0 Maidenhead Utd Women

Sunday January 30, 2022 – FAWNL Division 1 South West

Watson, Jones (Barbour-Gresham 28), Butler, Owen, Colley (Hallsworth 61), Bevan, Reed, Liggett, Haynes, Wathan (Criddle 69), Rogers (Grove 61 (Legall 89))

Harvey, Barrett, Thompson, Saunders, Bloor, Malhotra, Davis, Brett, Carvill, Barnes, O'Brien

The Robins scored four second-half goals to see off Maidenhead United 4-1 and continue their winning streak in the Women's National League Division One South West.

Cheltenham have now won five in a row in the league and remain unbeaten since the opening-day defeat to Southampton Women's.

After a goalless first half, Lacy-Jai Liggett's 12th of the season gave Town the lead.

Maidenhead equalised shortly after, but goals from Georgie-Marie Barbour-Gresham, Mai Butler and another from Liggett saw the Robins move onto 32 points and maintain their eight-point advantage.

Tom Davies made three changes to the team that beat Larkhall 4-0, as Holly Rogers, Abby Bevan and Courtney Jones replaced Jade Grove, Charlotte Criddle and Sammy Hallsworth.

Meanwhile, Monet Legall made her first appearance in a matchday squad since the aforementioned season-opener, and came off the bench in the closing stages.

Both sides felt each other out in the first 10 minutes, and Cheltenham had attempts on goal through Lois Colley and Amy Wathan, without really threatening an opener.

On 12 minutes, Liggett had the best chance of the first half as she coolly went round the 'keeper but couldn't finish when off-balance.

Wathan then struck just wide from 15 yards out, and after that, both sides struggled to create anything of note and went in 0-0 at the interval.

After the break, Wathan nodded a Colley free-kick narrowly wide before Liggett opened the scoring with a surging run into the area and a clever finish back across goal into the corner.

It didn't take long for the Magpies to level as a mis-hit free-kick was turned towards goal and the ball nestled in the corner.

However, substitute Georgie-Marie Barbour-Gresham restored Cheltenham's lead with her fifth goal of the campaign. She headed in Holly Reed's corner from close range.

The Robins suffered a blow immediately after that goal as Sammy Hallsworth was sin-binned for dissent minutes after coming on.

It didn't affect the pattern of the game too much though as they restricted Maidenhead in that period and doubled their lead at the end of it when captain Butler popped up with a delightful finish to a Criddle cross.

The closing stages were impacted by a significant injury stoppage to Grove, but Liggett still managed to get her third brace of the season, nodding the ball past the onrushing 'keeper and tapping home.

It was a winning return to the Corinium Stadium for Davies' team, who return to Cirencester next Sunday, 6 February to take on Exeter City in the quarter-finals of the National League Plate.

DEVELOPMENT TEAM

WOW – a busy few weeks came to a climax for the Dev side at Frampton Rangers on January 23.

We knew facing off against Frampton would be difficult because they're third in the league and because we were operating on just an eleven-player squad.

We aimed to contain and wait for opportunities as Frampton are an incredibly hard working team with a squad of phenomenal players. This strategy seemed to work at first, with the score locked at 0-0 at Half Time.

Neither side was creating many chances, but the second half picked up when the home side cleared Cheltenham's attack. With the ball at Ellie Walecki's feet, some thirty yards out, clever positioning slotted the ball out of the goalkeeper's reach bringing the score to 0-1.

While Frampton pushed harder, their attack gained ground, Cheltenham's defence was able to take the burden and continue on without conceding an equalising goal.

With 85 minutes on the clock, a tired team and a very nervous manager watched as Hannah Galpin fired a free-kick past the wall and the 'keeper, providing us with a fantastic 2-0 win.

The following week, against Bristol Ladies Union, we were working with a reduced squad – but didn't let that stop us!

The first half was subdued, with little goal action and both teams cancelling each other out. Come Half Time, we were solid in our performance and I was content with arrangements.

On 65 minutes, an attack on the right flank saw BLU scuff the ball clear from inside the box, setting up Becky Donnelly to connect brilliantly to get the first goal.

Despite a spirited fightback from Bristol, ten minutes later, Amelie Lewis would secure the second – and winning – goal.

The hosts would have the final say however, pushing on, asking questions and netting past Hannah Hughes on the 86th minute.

Despite this, a win is a win, and with two wins in the bag against two talented teams, we now look to make it a trifecta... on to Bristol Rovers!

New year and a cracking start!

Happy New Year from all the youth section. Not the first weekend back but a special one all the same. Sunday January 16 saw Cheltenham Town U10s host the Gloucester County Girls League Cup Finals morning at Springfields Park having won their group prior to Christmas.

A full squad of 12 players kicked off the three-way Final against Quedgeley Wanderers with a convincing win and clean sheet, followed by a break while Quedgeley took on Dursley in a tight game that saw Dursley come out on top. This meant that the third game was in effect the Final.

Dursley made the most of their momentum to take the lead after five minutes and held onto it until half time. Then a fully refreshed young Robins team came out fighting in the second half, equalising with a cracking shot from outside the box and then forcing a second and third goal to ensure they won the League Cup, 3-1.

The youth section hit a major milestone alongside their Final by fielding 100 players across the eight teams playing that day – U8s, U10s, U11 Tornadoes, U11 Vipers, U12 Tigers, U13 Spartans, U14 Titans and the Under 16s.

It goes without saying that all of this would not be possible without the help of an amazing group of volunteers: 15 coaches/assistants, 4 referees, 5 assistant referees and a lot of planning!

Everybody involved with the youth section wishes the best of luck to our senior Robins today as they embark on their own milestone!
