ANDY LIDDLE

• Cheltenham Town Women FC's Chairman shares his thoughts ahead of today's fixture

Good afternoon and welcome back to Kayte Lane, which will hopefully be a little less windy than it has in recent weeks, where it seems to have been storm Sunday, every Sunday.

Thank you so much for turning out in good numbers to cheer the Women on despite the horrendous conditions, it means a huge amount to the players and the Club.

Last weekend will live long in the memory. Making any final is never easy as every Club has the same ambition, so for little old Cheltenham to be in a National League final is the stuff of dreams, and testament once again to the incredible journey we have been on.

This afternoon we welcome Oxford's players, staff and supporters after the short journey down the A40, in a match that is fast becoming a highly contested local derby now that both sides have been established in Tier Three for some time. We have had some very close games over the years, including both of last season's games being settled by just one goal, where Oxford ran out 2-1 winners at their place, and 0-1 here.

Finally, keep your diaries free for Sunday 13th of April. We now know we will be playing AFC Bournemouth in this year's FA Women's National League Plate final, with the venue being finalised as I type. Once we know the details, we will be reviewing transport arrangements for fans.

Enjoy the game this afternoon and thank you again for all your support.

Enjoy the game

- The Robinesses Manager looks ahead to today's game...

Good afternoon, and welcome to Kayte Lane for today's exciting fixture against Oxford United.

Firstly, I'd like to extend a warm welcome to our visitors: Oxford's players, staff, and supporters. We're expecting a tough test today against a well-organized side, and we're looking forward to the challenge.

Reflecting on last week, I couldn't be prouder of the group following our narrow but hard-fought 1-0 win over Southampton Under 21s in the FAWNLI Plate Semi-Final. Reaching the Final of this competition is yet another historic moment for this team and the Club. It's a testament to the hard work, commitment, and belief within the squad. The way we approached that game, staying disciplined and focused against a talented side, was exceptional. The players gave everything, and the reward is the opportunity to compete for silverware – a challenge we are all relishing.

This week, our focus turns back to the league, where we face a strong Oxford United side. We know it will be a difficult match, but the momentum we've built in recent weeks, with a string of wins and impressive performances, gives us the confidence to approach this game with determination and belief. The squad is in a great place, and we're ready to embrace this trio of league fixtures over the coming weeks.

Let's keep pushing together and make this another positive step in what is already an exciting and historic season so far.

Enjoy the match.

Tom
