TOM DAVIES

Manager's thoughts

Good afternoon, and welcome to Kayte Lane for today's league fixture against Hashtag United.

Firstly, I'd like to extend a warm welcome to Hashtag's players, staff, and travelling supporters. We've had some really competitive games between the two sides in recent seasons, and we're looking forward to another strong test this afternoon.

Our recent trip to Lewes ended in a 3-0 defeat, which was a frustrating result.

We didn't feel we were quite at our best on the day, but equally the performance didn't warrant the scoreline. There were plenty of positive aspects within the game and moments where we showed the type of football we want to produce, but ultimately we weren't effective enough in the key moments.

What was important was the reaction.

We followed that with a really strong performance in the FAWNLCup against Kidderminster, winning 5-1 and showing quality and control throughout the game.

That result also saw us finish top of our group and progress into the next stage of the competition, where we'll face Bristol City PGA.

Our focus now returns to the league and another opportunity to build on the progress we're making. The group continues to work incredibly hard, the standards in training remain high, and we're seeing more consistency in the way we want to play. Today will provide another tough challenge, but one we're excited for and confident of attacking positively here at home.

Enjoy the game,

Tom

ANDY LIDDLE

Chairman's thoughts

Good afternoon and welcome back to Kayte Lane for this afternoon's fixture with Hashtag. We're fresh off a thumping away win last week against Kidderminster, meaning we topped the League Cup Group, and have now been drawn against Bristol City PGA in the First Round at home.

This is my penultimate game, and over the course of this programme and next week's, we have a two part exit interview.

Information about the role can be found here ctwomenfc.com/chairperson-vacancy and expressions of interest in the Chair's role are welcomed to secretary@ctwomenfc.com

14 years of Andy Liddle:

Andy, after 14 years with Cheltenham Town, why have you decided to step down?

I joined the Club in 2012. I spent the first two years as a (poor) first team manager, followed by the last 12 as Chairman which have been much more successful. There are effectively two reasons I am stepping down.

14 years of ANDY LIDDLE

One is very personal, and one is for the benefit of the Club. Firstly, this is a voluntary role, and there are periods where it can be quite demanding. Demands can effect my working week, which has to come first, and I am finding there and more and more pulls on my weekends with four children, two grandchildren, two elderly parents, neither of which are enjoying the best of health and of course a number of other interests. Secondly, I am probably two years too late. The Club needs a fresh perspective, new ideas, and new energy. There is nothing more important than providing Tom with everything he needs to compete in an ever more challenging Tier 3 where more Clubs than ever are now full time. What Tom achieves with very little resource and the minimum of budgets is quite incredible. We have boxed above our weight every year since gaining promotion and that is testament to the teams he recruits and retains both on the field and in terms of backroom staff

What made you think it was the right time to step away from the club?

I am not sure there will ever be a right time, and I'll be here to help with the new Chair's induction and will continue to provide consultancy where needed. As I said, I think I should have called it a day two years ago to be fair to Tom, but you think your parents health will improve and you'll be back with as much energy as you had on day one in the role... but life doesn't always go that way. There is also an element of not wanting to let go of something you have helped to build. We were rock bottom of Tier 5 with just 14 players on the books when we started this journey, and I quickly realised it needed a proper infrastructure if we were to build anything meaningful. We've had two promotions, won County Cups, featured in National League Finals, made the 4th round of the FA Cup, developed a reserves squad and now have girls playing from age six probably approaching 200 girls and women playing the beautiful game, and this is something I am immensely proud of in Cheltenham!

TODAY'S OPPONENTS

HASHTAG UNITED WOMEN

Hashtag United Women are entering their fourth successive season at Tier Three level after achieving promotion from the Division One South East in 2022/23.

The Tags have since finished in second place twice but dropped to ninth last season.

This season, a strong 4-2 win over Swindon Town and 1-1 draws against a Exeter City and Lewes see the side sat in eighth.

On top of this, the Tags finished top of their FAWNL Cup group after wins against Chatham Town, Billericay Town and London City Lionesses PGA. They will face league-rivals Swindon again in the First Round of the competition.

Last weekend, goals from Grace Gillard and Natasha Snelling saw Jay Devereux's side pick up all three points in the Cup in his first game against London City.

So far, Hashtag have only suffered defeats to promotion hunters AFC Bournemouth and Oxford United, and as they build on the ninth placed finish they achieved last season.

IN THE DUGOUT

JAY DEVEREUX

Head of Football Jay Devereux has unexpectedly become manager of Hashtag United Women in the last few weeks, following the departure of former manager Dom Edwards and his coaching staff, Alfie and Nick Crickmar.

However, despite this, he currently holds a 100% record in charge of the side, following last weekend's 2-0 win over London City Lionesses in the FAWNL Cup.

Whilst Devereux currently holds a more senior role at the club, the 50-year-old was manager of the Tags' men's side for six years, winning two promotions in his time before stepping down at the end of last season.

LAST TIME OUT

VS CTWFC

Cheltenham fell to two narrow defeats against the Tags last season both at Kayte Lane and on the road at Parkside.

On the road, the Robinesses suffered a 1-0 loss, a second-half strike from Honor Norton the difference, whilst Hashtag picked up all three points in a 2-1 win at Kayte Lane in early April thanks to goals from Renee Johnson and Isabelle Tomlin.

KIDDERMINSTER HARRIERS

CHELTENHAM TOWN

Cheltenham Town finish top of Group C in the FAWNL Cup with a 5-1 win over Kidderminster Harriers.

Cheltenham Town Women are through to the next round of the FAWNL Cup after a dominant 5-1 win against Kidderminster Harriers.

Goals from Courtney Jones, Leo Joyce, Chloe Snook and Charlotte Salisbury-Williams ruled out a goal from Sophia Webster-Ford and gave the Robinesses all three points in the final game in Group C.

It didn't take long for Cheltenham to take the lead; Libby Bell's corner into the middle met by captain Jones, who made no mistake, heading home to give her side the lead within the opening 10 minutes.

As the half went on, there were chances to add a second, Indie Power denied by the feet of Cadi Doran after being played in one on one, and moments later, Evie Murphy's effort from long-range hit the bar.

The Robinesses did get the second before the break, Joyce beating her marker and slotting home to double the deficit in added time.

Despite early pressure from the hosts in the second half, Power almost added a third, her effort in the box cannoning off the inside of the bar, before the striker won a penalty after being brought down by keeper Doran.

Top-scorer Joyce coolly slotted the resulting penalty into the bottom right-hand corner, giving her side a comfortable lead.

Kidderminster got one back on the 80th-minute mark through Webster-Ford, but Tom Davies' side responded and added another two in quick succession.

Substitutes Snook and Salisbury-Williams added to the tally, Snook slotting it into the bottom left corner after being played in by Jones, with Salisbury-Williams' long-range effort from the edge of the box making it 5-1 with a few minutes left to play.

The hosts were down to 10 in additional time; captain Liv Owen receiving a second yellow

Cheltenham: Fortner; Wellesley-Davies, Hall, Vine (Salisbury-Williams 67); Murphy, Jones, Curtis (Evans 60), Day (O'Keefe 74), Bell; Power (Snook 67), Joyce (Galley 60)

TODAY'S MASCOTS!

PLEASE WELCOME WHADDON UNITED U13S GIRLS AND CHARLTON ROVERS U8S GIRLS!

Whaddon United Youth FC have recently formed the first-ever girls football team at the U13s age group. The girls will be competing in Division 1 of the Gloucestershire County Girls Football League for the 2026/27 season.

With girls football growing rapidly across the country, we were determined to provide girls in and out of our community with the opportunity to join a team and get into football.

The foundations have been built for Whaddon United Girls to become something special, with providing future growth and more footballing opportunities remaining our biggest priority.

The coaching team is led by four qualified coaches and, most importantly, fathers who all have a massive love of the beautiful game, each with their daughter playing on the team: Mark Hawkins, Craig Kitchener, Dave Parker and Sean Gilks

Future opportunities await within our youth football setup for new coaches and new players who would like to get involved, regardless of coaching experience or playing experience.

Get in touch, be part of something great! #WUYFC
